Stockholme, May 30.

THe laſt week Monſieur Mayer Envoy Extraordinary from Denmark, had his firſt Audience of the King, and acquainted his Majeſty, That his Maſter had lately made an Alliance with the French King and the Elector of Brandenburg; Whereupon we are told, the King of Sweden immediately replied, That the Alliance he had made with the Emperor and the States General of the United-Provinces, was for the maintaining the Treaties of Weſtphalia and Nimeguen, and that he doubted not but they ſhould keep it. Our Fleet is ready to put to Sea, but will not, unleſs there be occaſion for it. Some days ſince a Fire happened at Noon-day at Stremſholme, a Town belonging to the Queen-Mother, and burnt ſo violently, that in few hours it conſumed above a hundred and forty Houſes, with the Church, &c.

Florence, June 6. A Veſſel arrived yeſterday at Leghorne in 21 days from Modavis in the Archipelago, brings advice, That Monſieur du Queſne had left thoſe Seas, and was gone home: And by a French Veſſel who came in 14 days from Meſſina, we have an account, That 2 Engliſh Frigats with 4 Merchants Ships under their Convoy were arrived there from Zant. The French work very hard upon the new Fortifications they are making at Gazal.

Vienna, June 14. From Hungary we have Advice, That the Turks have a Body of 20000 Men between Buda and Gran, and that they deſign to make Count Teckeley Prince of Tranſilvania; upon which it's ſaid the Emperor has reſolved to ſend ſeveral Regiments towards the Frontiers of Hungary, to be ready to joyn with the Forces that are already there, if there be need of it. Two days ſince parted from hence two Commiſſaries, with a conſiderable Sum of Money, to provide Bread and other Neceſſaries for the Imperial Troops that are now marching towards the Rhine. We are aſſured that the King of Spain is to give the Emperor 150 thouſand Crowns a month towards the maintaining the extraordinary Forces his Imperial Majeſty has now on foot.

Francfort, June 18. The Imperial Ambaſſadors here made two days ſince a very great and ſplendid Entertainment on occaſion of the Birth of the Imperial Prince, to which the French Ambaſſadors and all the other Publick Miniſters were invited (but the French did not go) and all the great Guns round the Town were thrice diſcharged.

Strasburg, June 19. We have at preſent a Gariſon here of between 10 and 11000 Men, and we are expecting the Troops of the Kings Houſhold, from Lorrain: The French Officers report, that they ſhall very ſuddenly have a great Army together, and that it will paſs the Rhine.

Cologne, June 23. The French Troops are drawing towards the Rhine, and ſome give out they will paſs that River at Briſac: They have already a very ſtrong Gariſon at Friburg, and with the addition of a few Troops more, they will be able to form a Camp in the Neighbourhood thereof. Our Magiſtrates have finally reſolved to receive the Troops of the Circle of Weſtphalia, which they once made a ſtand about, becauſe moſt of the ſaid Troops are the Elector of Brandenburgs, who is lookt upon to be in the French Intereſts.

Hamburg, June 23. The 13th Inſtant the Elector of Brandenburg arrived at Itzeboe, where the King of Denmark expected him: His Electoral Highneſs ſtay'd there ſeveral days, during which time nothing was omitted that might render the Entertainment of his Electoral Highneſs, and the Perſons that accompanied him, ſuitable to ſo illuſtrious a meeting: When they eat together, the King and Queen ſat at the upper end of the Table, on their right hand the Elector, Prince Louis, Prince Philip, &c. and on the left the Electoreſs, the Electoral Princeſs, and other Ladies of great Quality. On the 18th the Elector parted again from Itzeboe, and lay that night at Pinnenberg, and the 19th in the Evening arrived here, being received by the Burghers in Arms, and ſaluted with a diſcharge of all the Cannon about the Town. That night his Electoral Highneſs was entertained at Supper by our Magiſtrates, and the next day at Dinner by the Duke of Holſtein Gottorp. Sunday in the Evening his Electoral Highneſs was entertained with an Opera, and the next day his Electoral Highneſs parted again from hence on his return for Berlin. From Gluckſtadt we have Advice, That the King of Denmark intended to Embark there as this day for Oldenburg, where he would make a very ſhort ſtay, and then return for Copenhagen.

Bruſſels, June 23. The Prince of Orange is daily expected in Flanders to viſit the Dutch Gariſons upon that Frontier: and the Marquiſs de Grana intends to part from hence in few days to viſit Aetſ, Mons, and the reſt of the Gariſons on that ſide. From Lille we have an account, That the Mareſchal d'Humieres was returned thither, and that he had given out Orders for the providing 100 Wagons, but for what ſervice was not known. The Letters add, that they are raiſing of Horſe in thoſe parts, and that the French intend to have a great encampment of Foot between Luxemburg and Trier. We ſhall now quickly ſee what will be the iſſue of Monſieur Prado and Van Afferden's Affair, Report having been made to his Excellency of their Examinations.

Hague, June 27. The 24th Inſtant the Prince of Orange parted from hence for Flanders to viſit the Gariſons of this State; and on Monday next his Highneſs will be here again. We have an account that ſeveral Daniſh and Brandenburg Frigats are cruiſing upon our Coaſts, and there are thoſe that apprehend they have a deſign upon our Eaſt-India Ships
